

Application for Exemption: First-Year Student/New Freshman Residency Requirement

Students admitted as New Freshman/First-Year Students are required to live in university housing during their first two semesters. Exempted from this policy are students who have reached their twenty-first birthday prior to the first day of classes, veterans of at least two years active military service, married students, students who commute to school daily from their permanent, legal residence of their parents (within a 35-mile radius of campus), and students who have resided in residence halls for two semesters, excluding summers. To be considered for a housing exemption, a student must follow the steps below:

- Review and Complete this Exemption Application form.
- Send the completed application and any supporting documentation to the Office of Campus Living. Depending on your reason for exemption request, supporting documents may include: your marriage license, copy of military orders or DD214, your child's birth certificate, medical documentation, and notarized statement from parents, and other letters as appropriate.
- The Housing Exemption Review Board will review appeals monthly, more frequently, if necessary.
- The student will receive notification of the Review Board decision via email within 5 business days after the Board meets.
- An exemption from the ECU required residency policy is granted only before the first semester of attendance and does not release you from any obligations or requirements of a submitted Campus Living housing contract.

Completed documents must be submitted one of two ways:

1. Send by mail to:

Campus Living, Live-On Requirement Committee
Jones Hall Office Suite 100, Mailstop 415
Greenville, NC 27858-4353

2. Scan all documents and send by email to housing@ecu.edu. Please mail in originals.

Application for Exemption: First-Year Student/New Freshman Residency Requirement

By submitting this waiver to receive an exemption from the first-year student live on-campus requirement, I understand that my acceptance of this exemption is conditional and that I am required to purchase a Gold 500 meal plan for the first semester of enrollment under the first-year residency exemption so I might better connect to the campus and others in the first-year class.

I understand that this requirement is not appealable and is a condition of exemption. Should I fail to purchase this Gold meal plan during my first semester of enrollment at East Carolina University, I understand that my first-year residency exemption may be revoked, and I will become fully responsible for the full room and board charges for the academic year.
